

Burgundy 2015 -

Sylvain Dussort, Cuvée des Ormes 2015 Bourgogne 16.5

Quite restrained nose but a lovely citrus and greengage palate. This has the acid and snap that could almost be Sauvignon Blanc. Lovely fennel note on the finish. (RH)

Sylvain Dussort, Vieilles Vignes 2015 Meursault 17

Smoky, broad and very sharply defined, with tart yet integrated acidity on the finish. Really nervy – yet has plenty of body to counter the angular structure. Very deftly done. (RH)

Sylvain Dussort, Le Limozin 2015 Meursault 17.5

More smoky than their Vieilles Vignes, but has the same strongly acidic drive on the palate – yet with even more layers of fruit and length. Attractive meal and cereal quality. (RH)

Meal, oats, lemon and apple, mint and spice. Very good, this – exemplary for the region, not too fat or buttery, expert acidity. Delicious. (RH)

20 - Truly exceptional

19 - A humdinger

18 - A cut above superior

17 - Superior

16 - Distinguished

15 - Average, a perfectly nice drink with no faults but not much excitement

14 - Deadly dull

13 - Borderline faulty or unbalanced

12 - Faulty or unbalanced